Elks' Memorial Day.
 Alexandria Lodge of Elks will hold memorial services in the Opera House tomorrow night. Arrangements have been made for a proper celebration of the occasion, and an interesting evening is anticipated by all who purpose to attend. The members of the lodge have invited many of their friends to the exercises. These services are held on the first Sunday in December of each year by all the lodges of Elks in the country. They are held in the memory of the departed brothers of each lodge, and are most solemn and impressive. The following programme has been arranged for tomorrow night:

Overture, "The Palms," Prof. Pistorio's Orchestra; invocation, Rev. H. J. Cutler; funeral march, orchestra; opening ceremonies, Jacob Brill, Exalted Ruler, and officers; quartette, "The Vacant Chair"; quartette, "Lead Kindly Light"; rosary, cornet solo, Wm. T. Davis; address, Judge L. C. Barley; trio, "O Jesu Dei Vini" Mrs. Daly, Mrs. Brill and Miss Greenwell; eulogy, Mr. C. C. Carlin; solo, "Holy City," Mr. W. D. McFarland; address, Mr. Morris Sheppard, of Texarkana Lodge, No. 399; quartette, "Consolation"; closing ceremonies, Exalted Ruler and officers; "Charity," Mr. Frank A. Rehstock, of Washington Lodge, No. 15; "Nearer, My God, to Thee," quartette, orchestra, lodge and audience; benediction, Rev. P. P. Phillips.

The following are the members of the quartettes: Mrs. J. Espuna-Daly, Mrs. Thomas A. Hulfish, Mrs. Jacob Brill, Miss Mai Greenwell, Messrs. W. D. McFarland, P. V. Errichsen, Frank A. Rehstock and H. C. Pearson.

Alexandria Lodge has on its rolls many prominent and representative citizens, and the order has been popular from its introduction into this city.

Bridge Approaches.
 The chief of engineers has appointed Lieut. Col. Alexander M. Miller, Maj. Thomas W. Symons, and Col. John Biddle to consider the selection of a design for the approaches to the proposed highway bridge across the Potomac river. It is thought the board will seek to have the approaches to the highway bridge harmonize with those of the Pennsylvania Railroad bridge, which will be about 1,100 feet east of the former. The available funds are not sufficient to procure ornamental approaches such as are now desired for the bridge, but it is believed Congress will appropriate more money for the purpose.

Another Old Violin.
 Mr. George M. Reynolds, of this city, has a violin which antedates the instrument owned by Mr. Kicherer, a description of which was published in the Gazette a few days ago. Mr. Reynolds' violin bears the inscription "Antonius Stradivarius Cremonensis Faciebat anno 1713;" also a cross and the letters "A. S." in a circular border. The instrument was purchased many years ago from an Italian by Mr. Reynolds' mother. The seller said he brought it from Italy with him and that it had been in his family many years.

Concert Monday Night.
 The concert to be given next Monday evening at the Opera House under the auspices and for the benefit of the First Baptist Sunday School will prove very entertaining to all who attend. A soprano, violinist, a pianist and an elocutionist from the Ithaca Conservatory of Music will do their best, on that occasion, to entertain all. Some of the young ladies comprising the company will sing at the morning and evening service of the Baptist Church tomorrow.

Charter.
 Judge Barley has approved the charter of the Beck, Deak and Company (incorporated) with $200,000 capital, to do a general banking business in Mexico and the United States. It is authorized to own 10,000,000 acres of land and has extensive franchises. The incorporators are Eman L. Beck, of the City of Mexico, and W. E. Deak and A. C. Averingham, of Terre Haute, Ind.

Failed to Appear.
 Walter L. Evans, who was arrested on Thursday charged with disposing of goods belonging to a Richmond firm and who had his case postponed until this morning, failed to appear in the Police Court this morning when the case was called. This was the only matter before the court.

Special Services.
 Special services will be held in the Methodist Protestant Church every night next week. The pulpit will be occupied by a different minister each night.

Personal.

Mr. K. Kemper, who visited Richmond this week, carried with him a copy of the "History of the Seventeenth Virginia Regiment," a complete roster of its members and other data which he turned over to Governor Montague, who is compiling statistics concerning Virginia troops in the civil war at the request of the U. S. government.

Miss Maud Wheat and Mr. Harold West, of the Baltimore Sun, will be married at the home of Miss Wheat on Wednesday evening next. Only the immediate families of the bride and groom will be present.

The Misses Augusta and Helen Parrott have returned from Warrenton, where they spent the summer. Miss Helen has been very sick and is still sick.

Mr. George Washington, who was run over by a railway train at the corner of King and Fayette streets several weeks ago, and whose right arm was amputated at the Alexandria Hospital has been discharged from that institution.

Rev. Dr. J. H. Bolderidge, of Lancaster, S. C. will occupy the Baptist Church pulpit at both the morning and evening services tomorrow. Dr. Bolderidge is a native Virginian and a forcible speaker.

Mr. C. B. Marshall, of this city, has been re-appointed District Deputy Grand Master of Masons for the Alexandria district.

Christian Endeavor Work.
 The executive committee of the Virginia Christian Endeavor Union recently passed a resolution to bring to the State Rev. C. E. B. Ward, field secretary of the Colorado Christian Endeavor Union, for a two months' special campaign among the young people of Virginia. He is an eloquent speaker and a specialist in Christian Endeavor work; but his addresses will be found equally helpful to members of other young people's societies. Mr. Ward will begin his campaign in Northern Virginia, and then go to Richmond, Newport News, Norfolk and other parts of the State. He will preach at 11 o'clock a. m. tomorrow in the Methodist Protestant Church in this city, speak to the Juniors at 3 o'clock, and will address the Young People's Society at 7:30 p. m. Mr. Ward has been wonderfully successful in the West and the State Union is looking for equally good results in Virginia.

Visit of Grand Chapter Officers.
 About three years ago it was suggested that the different chapters of Royal Arch Masons in Virginia provide jewels for the grand officers, and Mount Vernon Chapter, of this city, acting upon the suggestion, presented the Grand High Priest with a jewel, the only one the Grand Chapter has received. Past Grand High Priests Hubert and Charleton were appointed a committee by the Grand Chapter to visit Mount Vernon Chapter in this city and present it with a handsomely engrossed and framed copy of the resolutions adopted by the Grand Camp upon the reception of the jewel. These grand officers visited the chapter last night and formally presented the resolutions, which were received by High Priest Warfield on behalf of Mount Vernon Chapter. At the close of the meeting the visitors were entertained at a banquet.

Accident to an Engineer.
 Mr. John H. Watkins, engineer on the Southern Railway, was seriously injured shortly after 11 o'clock this morning by being struck by a "cut-off" engine in the yard in this city. Mr. Watkins was preparing his locomotive to take out southbound passenger train No. 35, and had stepped from the footboard to the ground for the purpose of oiling the engine when the "cut-off" or the engine which carries through trains to Washington, came along, striking him in the face and knocking him down. Mr. Watkins was picked up, placed on a stretcher and carried to his home on upper King street where he was soon attended by Drs. Klipstein, Smith and Jones, who found that his upper jaw had been broken and his face seriously cut. His injuries, though painful, are not grave.

Conditional Pardon.
 Samuel Mills, colored, who in July, 1902, was sentenced to the penitentiary for two years by the Corporation Court in this city for forging the name of A. C. Moss, ticket agent of the Southern Railway, to a check, has received a conditional pardon.

A similar pardon has also been granted to Albert Wood, colored, who was in October, 1899, sent to the penitentiary for two years for attempting to burglarize the residence of Mr. W. D. Hudson in this city. Wood had three years added to his sentence inasmuch as he had previously served a term in the penitentiary.

Find Five Dollars.
 S. Ford, arrested by Officer Mayhugh on Thursday for soliciting orders for crayon pictures without license, was fined $5 in the Police Court later yesterday evening. The prisoner claimed that he was merely giving instructions in art and was not performing the duties of an ordinary canvasser. At his request the case was postponed from the regular session of the court yesterday morning to 5:30 o'clock yesterday evening, when the accused appeared to answer the charge.

The Market.
 There was but a small increase in the offerings of country produce in market this morning over those of last Saturday. Prices were still stiff with no indication of weakening. Butter was selling at the old price—25c per pound; eggs were 35c a dozen; dressed chickens 30a50c each; fresh pork 12a15; rabbits 20a30c each; squirrels 10a15c. There was a meagre supply of vegetables, but it was about equal to the demand. Meats and fresh fish were unchanged.

Deaths.
 Lillian Louise, the little daughter of Mr. Joseph T. and Mrs. Susie R. Padgett, died at her parents' residence, 1021 Queen street, last night, after a short illness.

Sarah Frances Barber, a former resident of West End, died in Washington yesterday. Her remains will be brought here tomorrow for interment.

Testimonial Concert.
 At the Opera House in this city on December 10, a grand concert will be given by the best local talent in the city, assisted by first-class talent from Washington. The object of this concert is to assist Mr. Timothy White, a blind man, who is worthy of anyone's charity. Tickets for this testimonial can be procured from any of the local preachers. The concert will be under the supervision of Manager Harper.

LOCAL BRIEFINGS.
 There was a false alarm of fire early last night.

A Business Men's Association has been formed in Falls Church with G. T. Mankin as president; J. W. Brown, vice president; M. E. Church, treasurer, and A. H. Barbours, secretary.

Professor Langley's airship experiments are about to be reopened on the Eastern Branch, just off Arsen Point.

All arrangements for the test have been completed. The ill-fated buzzard, which was wrecked at Widewater, has been repaired, new plumage has been added, and today, if weather conditions permit, a test will be made.

Statements of campaign expenses made to the secretary of the commonwealth by candidates for the General Assembly in the recent election indicate that less money was spent than ever before. Many aspirants for legislative honors say they spent nothing.

Mr. James R. Caton, of Alexandria, whose nomination cost him 2 cents—the price of a postage stamp—expended $4.50 for the printing of circulars and cards and the distribution of this literature.

The residence and store which has recently been erected on the north side of King street, near Washington, by Mr. E. S. Fleming, is about completed. It is one of the prettiest and coolest buildings on the thoroughfare.

Mr. J. L. Reid, who lives on Maj. Janney's farm, near this city, reports that thieves last night invaded the premises and stole thirty hens and two Plymouth Rock roosters.

Mr. Henry H. Posey, one of the oldest citizens of Prince George's county, Md., died at his home near Grayton on Monday night last, aged 80 years.

Mr. W. H. Myers, of the Theological Seminary, will conduct the services at the Railroad Reading Rooms tomorrow afternoon.

The Circuit Court for the City, Judge C. E. Nicol, will begin its December term on Monday.

At a recent meeting of the Friendship Fire Company fourteen new members were elected.

The weather has been mild and fair again today.

MEDICAL STUDENTS RIOT.—A riot, which started with a raid on the freshmen class of the College of Physicians and Surgeons by the second-year class of the college and ended in a rough-and-tumble fight between the several hundred students of the college and about a score of policemen occurred at Calvert and Saratoga streets, Baltimore, yesterday afternoon. Nearly 1,000 persons witnessed the fight. Sergeant William C. Whittle attempted to arrest one of the students and was attacked by the whole mob. His club was taken away from him and he was beaten and hurled down the stone steps of the college, on Saratoga street. The disturbance was quelled by a large force of officers under Lieutenant Cole, and five of the alleged ringleaders were arrested and fined.

The Baltimore police have arrested Dr. David C. Bliss, alias John B. King, in connection with the robbery of Bank Messenger Stewart Hill in the postoffice yesterday. The satchel stolen was found in a hallway. The registered letters were missing but there were checks for $9,900 in the bag. It is now discovered that the letters contained bonds worth $6,420.

Bilious Colic Prevented.
 Take a double dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as soon as the first indication of the disease appears and a threatened attack may be ward off. Hundreds of people who are subject to attacks of bilious colic use the remedy in this way with perfect success. For sale by Richard Gibson.

Fight Will Be Bitter.
 Those who persist in closing their ears against the continual recommendation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, will have a long and bitter fight with their troubles, if not ended earlier by fatal termination.

Read what T. R. Beall, of Beall, Miss., has to say: "Last fall my wife had every symptom of consumption. She took Dr. King's New Discovery after everything else had failed. Improvement came at once and four bottles entirely cured her. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists. Price 50c and $1.00 Trial bottles free.
